House of Glow unfolds as a one evening experience where the two halves of glow are woven into a single journey.

The evening opens with a grounding introduction to the nervous system; breath, sensing and flow, offering simple guidance as the body softens, the nervous system exhales, and glow begins from within.

Then unfolds with a couture conversation and total show with Jorgen Simonsen where identity, movement, and the language of clothing takes centre stage. Through live expression and narrative, his designs reveal how elegance emerges when the body is at ease, how posture, line and presence transform clothing into statement. A refined, embodied and unmistakably Parisian.

The evening continues with a couture pop-up shop, bubbles and snacks. Guests are invited to linger, exchange, ask questions, explore the collection, and experience how presence translates into form.

Evening offering.

Your evening includes a closing gift: A one month invitation to the online self sustain devotion membership. Gently extending the experience into your daily rhythm.
